AN IMPRESSIVE SERVICE.

To The Editor of THE TRIBUNE.

Dear Sir:—On Friday last in Christ Church, at the funeral of one of the older people of the Reserve, who had died of the prevailing epidemic the venerable Missionary announced that on the following Sunday, he would have special prayers of intercession on account of the sickness. There was, therefore, an unusually large congregation, of whom a number appeared to be just recovering from a serious illness. After the third Collect the Incumbent of the Church proceeded to the altar, and there asked the people to sing on their knees Hymn 465, A. & M. Several appropriate Collects were said, including that for all sorts and conditions of men, and for those who desired to give thanks for recovery from the General Thanksgiving was used. This special service made so deep an impression upon all present that I cannot avoid drawing attention to it in your valuable weekly, in hopes that other congregations may be induced to adopt this method of asking the Almighty to stay his hand. After the prayers the Missionary preached a most impressive sermon from Numbers 16, v. 48. The Holy Communion was then celebrated when 57 partook. I have frequently before attended divine service in Christ Church, Mohawk Reserve, but on no previous occasion did I see such genuine heartfelt worship. The congregation dispersed quietly, all appearing to feel thankful that it had been their privilege to be there.
A WORKSHIPPER.

Deseronto, Feb. 3rd, 1899.

KINDNESS REWARDED.

The Napanee Express says that for some time past there has resided in the town an aged lady named Mrs. Margaret Hopper, who unknown to her relatives was possessed of a large property estimated at over $300, 000. Mrs. Hopper has resided for several years with her relatives, nephews and nieces, in this section of the country until a few months ago when it became evident that a change of habitation was not only possible but probable.

It seems the relatives did not suspect so large a treasure was in store, and acting on some real or supposed grievance Mrs.
Hopper fancied more attention might be paid to her wants, and feeling aggrieved at being thus treated, she determined to change her residence. Acting on this resolution she removed to the pleasant home of Mr. Herman Ming, one of our large hearted citizens. Here she met with that kindness which the aged appreciate; and continued to reside with the family until death called her away, on Wednesday morning last.

Some time ago Mrs. Hopper, who was a practical business woman, called in a lawyer eminent in his profession, and two distinguished medical gentlemen and in their presence made a will, the doctors certifying that she was capable of making a legal will.
By this document all former wills were revoked and the whole of her property is bequeathed to Mr. Herman Ming, in recognition of his kindness in caring for an old lady. Mr. Ming thus became possessor of more than a competency. We say it serves him right. Long may he live to enjoy the just reward for kindness to the aged. It is said that the relatives will dispute the will on the grounds of alleged imbecility.

It is said that the relatives will dispute the will on the grounds of alleged imbecility.

of days last week attending the marriage of his brother, Mr. Jas. Lewis, of St. Paul, to Miss Annie Frost, of Belleville, on Saturday last.

Mrs. Lawrence Lyons, of Wellington, was visiting Mrs. P. Williams, last week.

Mr. C. Lyons, of Belleville, was in the village on Saturday last.

Mrs. R. L. Lazier has returned home having spent a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs.
Lewis, of Belleville.

Mr. James Lewis and bride, of St. Paul, were the guests of his brother, Rev. E. D.
Lewis, last week.

Miss Nettie Clarke is recovering from three weeks' attack of la grippe.

Mr. M. B. Lake is seriously ill with lung trouble, but is reported a little better at the time of writing.

Quarterly service was held in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning and was quite largely attended.

TYENDINAGA RESERVE

From Our Own Correspondent.

The funeral of Mrs. George Miracle, wife of the Sexton of Christ Church, took place on Friday afternoon; there was a large attendance.

The special intercessory service at Christ Church on Sunday last was very impressive.

Gholls have been operating at All Saints' Church Cemetery. Scarping will be a mild punishment for any individual now discovered proceeding about the Reserve cemeteries after dark.

Several infants and one adult have succumbed to the gripple. On Thursday of last week there were two funerals and on Friday

The collector appointed by the Incumbent of the Reserve, to solicit subscriptions for the Mission Fund of the Diocese is Miss Sophie Anderson who has already commenced her work. Be prepared for her when she calls.

Mrs. Sargent and family, of Kingsford, spent an evening last week at the Paragon.

The widow of Wm. Martin, who was killed by a runaway team some months ago, nearly met with a similar fate last week whilst driving with her brother Joseph S. Brant. The horses took fright, made a spring which upset the wagon and threw the occupants upon the ground. Mrs. Brant and her children escaped without bruises but Brant and Mrs. Martin were injured, the latter seriously.

The County Council of Hastings in its discussion upon Mohawk taxes evidently forgot that for many years the white tenants paid land tax and it is but fair that we should get some of the money back. If white people with to get to market over the rivers which run through the Reserve they must not growl about the expense of a couple of bridges.
Perhaps we may pay down the bridges and go down the boundary as they did of yore.

As will be seen by advt. Mr. John McCullough offers a building lot for sale. Division Court next Wednesday, 12th inst. In your account at THE TRIBUNE office settled?

Lost a heavy plain gold ring, 18 carats. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving same at THE TRIBUNE'S office.

Senator John Macdonald, died at his residence in Toronto on Tuesday. He was one of the leading merchants of Canada.

An aged married couple named Ryan who lived in the vicinity of New York died on the same afternoon this week in a gripper.

Nellie Bly, who made such fast time going round the world, is not a Canadian after all. She was born at Cochrane Mills, Pa.

This is the anniversary of the birth of Charles Dickens, the great novelist, and tomorrow Jules Verne enters upon his 63rd year.

Messrs. Rathbun & Blaikie, of Bay View Range, have sold their Clydesdale stallion, "Strathmore" to Messrs Vanlerven Bros., of Moscow.

Mr. Wm. Hill, of the Slush Road, came to Canada in 1892. He sees great changes in Deseronto since the days when it was known as Culbertson's wharf.

The tea meeting at Lansdale on Wednesday was a complete success, the sum of $52 being realized for the cemetery fence. Lansdale knows how to do it.

Mr. E. Westmoreland and staff killed and dressed five pigs over at Jameson's farm in Sophiasburg in one hour and twenty minutes. That is fast work, is it not?

Mr. Charles Crawford, of the Central Office, succeeds Mr. W. W. Power at the Chemical Works office. Young ladies will please make a note of this fact.

The Song Service in the Methodist Church last Sunday evening attracted a very large congregation. Rev. A. Campbell's address was listened to with marked interest.

Trains and mails from the west were three hours late on Wednesday, a Pullman car going west in the morning having left the track a short distance west of Belleville.

Belleville has a health officer who actually does his duty. Belleville recognizes his efficiency by refusing to pay him a respectable salary. Pass him along to Deseronto.

The wonderful success of the Deseronto High School, and especially the remarkable increase in the number of pupils, has called forth expressions of surprise from the press of the district.

Messrs. Rathbun & Blaikie, of Bay View Range, were surprised to find from what a wide range the numerous orders for seeds came in response to an advertisement in THE TRIBUNE. Read their advt.

Two hundred books have been recently placed in the library of the Methodist Sabbath school in addition to the one hundred and fifty added at Christmas. Librarian Vanlerven is almost satisfied.

The car "Jannica," which visited Deseronto when the premier and other ministers visited East Hastings during the last general election was destroyed by fire the other day at Ottawa, by a gas fire at the C. P. R. car sheds in that city.

As will be seen from the report of the proceedings of the county council, an effort will be made to induce the Indian Department to assume portion of the expense of making gravel roads and erecting bridges on Tyendinaga Reserve.

The county authorities are now drawing gravel. Their heavily loaded teams cut up the roads frightfully and it will take all the gravel they are drawing to repair the ruts they are making. It would be better to wait until the roads are hard or dry.

A large party of young people enjoyed a dancing assembly in the C. M. B. A. Hall on Friday evening, 31st inst. They reported an exceedingly happy time. There is a difference of opinion as to who was the belle of the evening and THE TRIBUNE is too cautious to settle such a delicate question.

The people of Brockville are moving energetically in the matter of securing a bridge over the St. Lawrence at that town. The proposed structure would cost $1,250,000. Its erection would make Brockville a great railway centre and instead of being a slow old town as at present it would soon become a thriving Canadian city.

No doubt that the bridge will be built in the course of a few years.

A gentleman from Picton being desirous to catch the midnight train on Saturday night hired a rig to convey him to Deseronto. The lively man put the rig in charge of a boy with strict injunctions to consult Rathbun Bros. before crossing the ice at Peterson's ferry. The boy disobeyed orders swearing that he knew the road and every thing else. As a result he drove into a hole and both his horse and wagon were lost.

Mr. F. Peel, leader of the Citizens' Band, inserts his card in THE TRIBUNE. He is prepared to give lessons on wind and string instruments, piano and organ, at reasonable rates. Will attend, if necessary at private residences. He is an excellent clarinet player and his services are at the disposal of parties, assemblies, &c. Any desiring to secure his services are requested to call at Mr. C. Macdonald's shop, Main street.

The members of Court Quinze, No. 1, C. O. F., have decided to hold their concert on the evening of Thursday, Feb. 20th, in Union Hall, Deseronto. This event will be the richest musical treat held in Deseronto for many years. First class talent has been engaged for the occasion including artists from Peterboro, Kingston and Toronto. The committee are working energetically and guarantee a complete success.

Principal Cole reports the public schools as rapidly filling up now that the gripper is disappearing, and teachers are much encouraged by the regular attendance of pupils. The establishment of a high school in Deseronto has already given an impetus to the cause of education, as parents are desirous that their children shall share its benefits. It is only by regular attendance and careful attention to studies that these benefits can be enjoyed.

The Oswego Times states that Collector Lyman is now looking through the records of the customs house and finds that the average of last arrivals of vessels at that port since 1851 is about Dec. 15. The most remarkable record is that of the ship, Nicholas, Capt. Wm. Williams, of Oswego, which arrived Jan. 1, 1855, from Toronto and left on Jan. 17, arrived again Jan. 13 and cleared Feb. 17. Of sailing craft the record of the ship, Eliza, arrived Jan. 14, 1850, from Toronto, the same date, and the only fishing boat which arrived later but it is not recorded. The arrivals and clearance of Capt. Williams and his command have been framed and hung up in the customs house.

Mr. Robert Macleod, late of the C. P. R., has accepted a position in the locomotive repair shops.

Mr. Frank Wood and family are removing to Napanee. Mr. Wood has not been enjoying good health of late and he thinks of following another occupation. We regret the removal of these respectable residents.

The Legislative Assembly was opened last week with republican simplicity. The Governor's speech referred to the agricultural depression and mining interests, asylum accommodation, boundary disputes, the proposed erection of a training school for French teachers in Eastern Ontario, and of grants of four thousand dollars to counties erecting almshouses, and changes in the law of testamentary, little business has been transacted in the house thus far, but next week will find members hard at work in the interest of their constituents.

The House of Commons has settled down to business and there have been a few lively debates while in committee on supply. The estimates have been brought down and show an amount nearly equal to those of last year. Only one division has taken place viz on Mr. Landier's motion to give a rebate of duty on corn imported to feed cattle for export. The motion was rejected by a close vote of 54 to 70. The question will be again brought up by Mr. Kirkpatrick, of Frontenac. The opposition have renewed their attack on the franchise act, and other questions. Exciting debates are expected on Mr. McCarthy's French language motion.

Champion of the World. Hugh McCormick of St. John. N. B. defeated Axel Paulsen in a ten mile race Saturday afternoon, Feb. 1st, and thus takes the title of champion of the world which Paulsen had held for eight years. He had sailed a mile to the goal. The time was 46 1/2 minutes.

Deseronto Cemetery Company. The meeting of the Board of the Deseronto Cemetery Company was held on Wednesday evening for organization, and the old officers were re-elected for the coming year: President, E. W. Rathbun; Secretary Treasurer, T. H. Nasmith. A further call of 25 per cent on the capital stock was decided upon, payable first of April next.

High School Board. The meeting of the new high school board was held on Wednesday. The officers appointed for the current year are: Dr. Newton, Chairman; T. H. Nasmith, Sec'y; F. S. Rathbun, Treasurer. Committee on heating, light and repairs—T. Roach, Jr., Dr. Newton, T. H. Nasmith, Committee on Supplies—Dr. Newton, F. S. Rathbun and T. H. Nasmith.

Liberal-Conservative Association. A meeting of the Deseronto Liberal-Conservative Association will be held in the town hall on Monday, the evening of Friday, Feb. 21st. As important business will be transacted a large attendance is requested. Mr. W. P. Hudson, M. P. P., will be present upon the occasion. All the desirous of becoming members are requested to attend.

Tea-Meeting at Melrose. The Presbyterian congregation of Melrose will hold their annual tea meeting at the Literary Hall, Melrose, on the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 26th. Mr. Hugh Walker, of Belleville, will preside and an excellent programme will be submitted. Doors open at 7:30. Tickets at 40c. Ticket 40c or two for 75c. The Melrose ladies excel all others in this district in the art of making a successful tea meeting; do not fail, therefore, to keep this event in view.

South Hastings Orangemen. The annual meeting of the County Orange Lodge of South Hastings was held in Belleville on the 4th inst., County Master, Matthew Bay, in the chair. Among other business a resolution was passed approving of the passage of the present bill for incorporation introduced into the house of commons. The officers for the coming year are: Co. Master, Peter Mather; P. M. Hill; Dep. M., Jas. D. Clarke; Chaplain, D. M. Rutledge; Secretary, W. H. Gordon; Treasurer, Dr. W. H. Craig; Dep. Sec'y, F. Campbell and W. Robinson.

Parnell Indicted. The trial of the suit for libel brought by Mr. Parnell against the Times was to have commenced on Monday, but when the case was called counsel announced that the suit had been compromised, the Times paying Mr. Parnell $5,000 damages. The Times also pays Mr. Campbell, private secretary to Mr. Parnell, $200 damages. Thus has Mr. Parnell been vindicated. The English journals all use in censuring the case, a kind Providence has nullified all his efforts to injure Gladstone and Parnell and thus delay the triumph of a righteous cause.

The Citizens' Band. The Citizens' Band have received the new instruments to replace those injured by the accident last fall. They have also sent a number of old instruments not in use to Toronto dealers. These will be replaced, and then the Band will be thoroughly equipped with instruments all made by Highgate, and played by the best musicians in the world. The Band will endeavor to secure new uniforms during the coming summer. Mr. F. Peel, the new leader, has entered upon his duties and is proving a very capable instructor. The band meet for regular practice on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Leaving Deseronto. Mr. W. P. Hudson has resigned his position in the office of the Deseronto Chemical Works, having been led to take this step on account of his father's death, and the London and York Herald, the oldest surviving member of the family to return home to attend to business. He will remain at Caniford for a short time, after which he will remove to Belleville, where the family will probably make their home. As pursuer of the Quinte and subsequently in the office of the Chemical Works Mr. Hudson proved a capable official and enjoyed the favour of the Rathbun Company. With all classes, and especially the young people, he was a favorite, and there is general regret at the sad cause which necessitates his removal from Deseronto.

Inland Revenue. The Report of the Minister of Revenue for the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1889 has been received. The salaries to excise officers in the Belleville district were as follows: A. Craig, $1,200; V. P. Bish, $1,050; J. O'Connell, $1,200; P. Bish, $820; Wm. McCoy, $750; A. F. McCaig, $400. Commission to customs officers were paid as follows: G. M. Fille, Napanee $250, E. J. McGuire, Trenton, $250, T. G. Fille, Deseronto, $51. In the weights and measures department the following salaries were paid: Wm. Johnston, Belleville, $1,000, Thos. Slattery, $700, Samuel Smith, $500. For gas inspection at Belleville, Wm. Johnston also received $158.33 and $158.33 for contingencies, and for inspection of gas at Deseronto the same officer received $91.63.

LOCAL ITEMS.

East Sunday comes April 13.

Prince Edward county fair will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 9th and 10th.

Mr. Wm. Jamieson lost a valuable two-year-old colt on Saturday night from inflammation.

Mr. W. R. Aylworth, Reeve of Deseronto, is chairman of the Finance & Property Committee of the County Council.

W. R. Sills and Dr. J. A. Johnson are auditors of Lennox & Addington. John Richards and Levi Williams are auditors for Prince Edward.

If there is no ice before Feb. 15th on Lake Ontario, various vessels have chartered to load ice from the back lakes and carry it to United States ports.

Mr. E. Westmoreland, of the Central Mail Company, has had computers and painters at work this week making improvements in his establishment.

The new "Pansey" looks at THE TRIBUNE office are selling off very quickly. Cheap and good reading is seldom to be obtained in Deseronto.

The "Social Seven" hold their ball this evening in the C. M. B. A. hall, Main street. This Club have made preparations on a grand scale and the event promises to be one of unusual brilliancy.

During the year ending June 30th, 1889, there were only 41 vessels, with a total tonnage of 3,781, built in Ontario. Of these one vessel and 68 tons are credited to Deseronto. The United States have virtually a monopoly of shipbuilding on the great lakes.

The following newspapers received pay ment from Dominion government for advertising last year: Gazette, $190.08; Picton, $270.60; Trenton, $286.74; Maclean's, $22.83; Kingston News, $774.03; Napanee Beaver, $85.05.

During the last fiscal year the exports from Deseronto were of the value of $49,040, imports $44,440; Napanee, exports $122,876, imports $67,176; Picton, $393,073 and $309,229; Trenton $669,697 and $71,183; Belleville $785,057 and $955,392; Kingston $756,434 and $1,368,331.

Heavy Strain, of Kingston, on Friday, received a letter which had gone into the sea when the steamship Oregon was wrecked and sunk in 1886. There were 598 mail bags on the steamer, and of them 298 were recovered. The letter in question was found buried in the sands of a beach near Cape Hatteras, North Carolina. A small bag containing the missive drifted 400 miles from the scene of the wreck.

During the past fiscal year there entered from United States ports at Deseronto 173 Canadian steam vessels, of a registered tonnage of 37,409 and crews numbering 1,637 men, and 56 sail vessels, tonnage 6,555 and crews 285. There entered from the United States steam vessels of 294 registered tons and 14 sail with tonnage 712, making a total of 179 steamers and 70 sail. The totals at Belleville were 41 steamers, 83 sail, tonnage 27,723; Picton and outports, 117 steamers and 173 sail, tonnage 35,345; Trenton 132 steamers, 9 sailing vessels, tonnage 26,415. In the coasting trade there arrived at Deseronto 529 vessels with a tonnage of 66,625. This includes all craft calling at dock.

Vital Statistics.
Mr. E. N. Irvine, Registrar, reports the following vital statistics for January: births 5, marriages 3, deaths 4.

J. O. F.
During the month of December the Independent Order of Foresters gained 705 in membership, having on January 1st, 17,026 members; the reserve fund gained during the same month $4,297.06 and on January 1st amounted to $188,130.86.

David May Stay There.
David Conlin, who disappeared from Westport last spring, has turned up in Ireland. He wants his wife to send him money to return but she won't, saying, "I love myself and Mike to grub for, and the Lord knows that's enough. If he holds his hand on his knee till I send for him he will never want a patch."

High School Fees.
Deseronto high school led the way in the matter of the total abolition of fees for attendance. Kingston college institute followed suit as far as several classes are concerned. Other school boards have taken the subject into consideration and in a few years high school education will be as free as air, a principle for which THE TRIBUNE has always contended. The universities must also fall into line.

Customs Duties.
From the Tables of Trade and Navigation for the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1889, we learn that the total duties collected at the Port of Deseronto amounted to $8,016.72; Napanee, $4,443.33; Belleville, $61,066.07 of which $1,121 was contributed by the outport of Campbellville; Picton with its five outports $10,322; Trenton, $10,308; Kingston $180,637. The cost of collection in Deseronto was only $728; Napanee $1,500; Picton, $2,486; Trenton $69,000; Belleville $3,646; Kingston $15,774. It is obvious that Deseronto and Trenton do not amount to much in the eyes of the government. However, Trenton did get a handsome public building.

Auditor-General's Report.
The Auditor General's Report is a cumbersome but interesting volume giving full information of the appropriation of money by the Dominion parliament. Of persons receiving pay from more than one source there are a goodly number, the total amounts ranging from $6,000 down. In this connection if any Deseronto man is seeking an office it will be as well to remember that it will pay best to be a judge or better still a special customs agent. As far as Deseronto is concerned two persons only come into this class Mr. Wm. Johnston, inspector of gas, and our own collector of customs. In the legal expenses column Mr. H. R. Bedford is down for $62.26, we wish it had been more. Civil government—we never heard of a Deseronto man receiving an appointment in the civil service. Pensions—nil. Public Buildings—nil, yet forthcoming. Public Works—no grant yet for that bridge to Prince Edward. Lighthouse and Coast service—Rathbun Company $200 and $18.00 for meteorological service. Customs—rent $120. Gas inspection—Wm. Johnston $91.63. Post Office, Mail Service—B. Q. 13, for conveyance of mails between Deseronto and the Junction, $730, and Deseronto Navigation Co., for carrying mails to and from Picton, $2,296. Collected by customs officer for steamboat inspection $148.96. Such are a few facts gleaned by a cursory review of this volume.

Canadian Press Association.
The Semi-Annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association will be held in the city council chamber, Toronto, on Friday Feb. 14th, 1890, commencing at 11 o'clock, a.m.

East Hastings Report.
The Reformers of East Hastings will meet at Canifton town hall on Friday, Feb. 14th, to discuss matters of importance to the party and select candidates for both the local and Dominion parliaments.

Just Like Them.
Rev. W. W. Carson, in an address at Kingston, denounced tight lacing, saying: "A Canadian girl is worth a million Chinese, and yet we allow her, on a slushy day, and in the streets in tight laced boots, and to kill herself slowly by not taking plenty of lung room. How many times have I stood by the bedside of girls, dying because they had violated the laws of nature."

Police Court.
On Saturday night the Chief arrested James Howard for drunken and disorderly conduct, profane swearing and interference with the Salvation Army upon the street. He appeared before the magistrate on Monday who dismissed him with a reprimand, and with the promise that if he or any other person was brought before the court similar charges he would incur the severest penalties prescribed by the law.

A Wise Move.
Belleville city council have appointed a committee on industries and railways at its last meeting, and have decided to make a strong effort for connection with the C. P. R. Parliament will be asked for assistance. It is believed that the Belleville, now dependent on one line of railway, could not successfully compete with other centres. One speaker said that the Deseronto, Napanee and Parnow Railway was tapping the back country. Without this connection with the C. P. R. Belleville cannot prosper.

Hog Culture.
About the first of March last Mr. E. Westmoreland sold a sow pig to Mr. Wm. Jamieson for ten dollars. Mr. Jamieson raised seven from the first litter of nine which he sold in November for 60 dollars. This sow has since had another litter of seven which will be ready for sale in a few weeks and which will probably bring him the same sum. It is calculated that he will clear $120 from this animal in one year. Mr. John McCullough is right when he says pay farmers to go more into hog culture.

Against Grain Scoundrels.
Mr. S. B. Burdett has introduced a bill into parliament with the object of protecting farmers from hull-less oats and similar swindles. Mr. Burdett's bill provides that whoever obtains a note or other evidence of indebtedness in consideration of a sale to another person of any seed grain or other article at a fictitious price or price equal to or more than twice the market price of such grain, or who sells a note so obtained, shall be liable to imprisonment not more than three years nor less than one year, or be fined from $100 to $500.

Death of Captain Wm. Power.
Capt. Wm. Power died at his home in Canifton last Saturday morning. He was born in the county of Tipperary, Ireland, and came to this country when sixteen years of age. He was an officer in the Canadian militia and hence the title of Captain. He was one time owned the old Dominion house in Belleville and was at different times engaged in several lines of business. He owned the Queen's hotel in Belleville besides other real estate and a hotel at Canifton. He was a passionate lover of horse-flesh of which he always had a large stock. He leaves three children, one of whom is Mr. W. W. Power, of the Deseronto Chemical Works. The funeral took place on Monday and was attended by a vast concourse of citizens.

Funeral of Mr. Gordon Hoople.
On Friday last the members of the Citizens' Band and other friends, about twenty five in all, drove up to Frankford to attend the funeral of the late Mr. Gordon Hoople, formerly leader of the Band. Having arrived at Frankford the Band, wearing appropriate mourning badges, proceeded to the house of mourning and viewed the corpse of their late leader. They afterwards attended the funeral heading the procession to the church and grave and playing as a Dead March the Dirge, the Frankford Band following the casket as mourners. Rev. S. A. Duprau, pastor of the Methodist congregation, preached a eloquent and affecting sermon, the choir singing the hymn, "The Lord is my strength and my shield." Mr. Macdonald, of the Citizens' Band, informs us that the deceased was held in high esteem in Frankford, that he was very kind to his father and mother who still reside there, and who have lost in him their only child. Gordon having been one of two sons. The Frankford people are very anxious to have the funeral of the late Mr. Hoople, and the thoughtful kindness and attention of the Citizens' Band at this occasion were much appreciated.

On the Banks of the Hudson.
Mr. J. D. Burgess, formerly of Deseronto, but now a resident of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., is writing to renew his subscription to THE TRIBUNE, states that up to the date of his letter, Jan. 28th, he had not seen one day's paper, and that the thermometer had never marked more than 20° of frost. The Hudson was still open and the outlook for ice was very slim. Business was not very brisk and merchants were longing for snow and ice. A gripe was prevalent and Americans here came to the conclusion that they would rather have the grip of the British lion than feel the grip of the Russian bear. Mr. Burgess had intended a trip to Deseronto during January, but was coming in forbade the anticipated pleasure. He received the contract during the month of December or its beginning, and was engaged in buildings ranging in price from $2,000 to $3,000, all to be completed by the middle of April. His former friends in Deseronto will rejoice to hear of his prosperity in the land of Uncle Sam.

Board of Health.
The Board of Health met on Monday evening and organized by electing Dr. Vandervoort, Chairman, and Mr. N. Irvine, Secretary. The Board desire to call the attention of the people to the necessity of cleaning yards, closets, chimneys, &c. This is feasible, or has been feasible, during the whole of this mild winter, and it is very desirable that it should be done early and well. If, as some M. D.'s claim, cholera will follow in the wake of a gripe, people should be particularly careful this year and there should be no need to call upon the board of health to clear away the filth of the town. Let every one clean their own premises, or have them cleaned, and all will be well. However, any are dilatory the Board intend to use vigorous measures and will probably add the tax of cleaning to the taxes. A watchful eye will be kept upon the slaughter houses and sources of milk supply. It is cheerful assistance law-abiding citizens will give efforts to improve the sanitary condition of the town.

AN OLD RESIDENT'S MAXIMS.

SUNDAY DON'TS.
Don't be lazy.
Don't be seen smoking on the streets on Sunday—a bad example for children and a filthy habit any day. In many towns the police would insist upon you not doing so.
Don't be out of your own church on Sunday to church. Attend your own church and support your own preacher; help him, his instructions will do you good.
Don't go on church and during the singing stand up with your hands in your pants pockets, dangling your thumbs; you have the appearance of a man looking for McGinty.
Don't laugh and giggle in church; it is only the low and ignorant who are guilty of such conduct.

MONDAY DON'TS.
Don't forget your Sunday prayers and resolutions.
Don't find fault with the streets, sidewalks and crossing. No one is in charge of the town now a days.
Don't bother the town officials when engaged in a game of cards.
Don't walk on Prince Street, it is too filthy to be called a street. The clean people upon it should write to the Government Board of Health for protection.
Don't make believe that you are sick and live upon the benevolent society to which you may belong.

EXPERIMENTS WITH BARLEY.

The Central Experimental Farm has issued a bulletin upon the subject of experiments with barley, made with the purpose of demonstrating that two-rowed barley, which is the only kind valuable for export to Great Britain, can be successfully grown in Canada. The bulletin contains a full and complete account of the experiments, and concludes as follows: "The results submitted of the test of these leading varieties of two-rowed malting barley over a very large area in Canada are sufficient to show that even in the unfavorable season for barley growing there is a wide territory over which two-rowed barley for the English market can be grown with advantage, and the yield obtained from the best sown out well as the field culture at the experimental farms would indicate that heavier crops of two-rowed barley of the varieties named could be raised than of the ordinary six-rowed barley. It is not practicable to entirely change any important crop in a single season, especially when it covers so large an area. It is better for many reasons that such a change should come more slowly, but it does seem feasible to bring this about to a very large extent within a comparatively short time."
The bulletin is interesting. Any farmer desiring a copy can get it on application to Professor Saunders at the Experimental farm, Ottawa.
The government will purchase $25,000 worth of this barley and sell to those farmers desiring same.

DEAF AND DUMB INSTITUTE.

Principal Mathison, of the deaf and dumb institute, Belleville, says the institute has just passed through a most critical period in the history of the institution, and following an epidemic of measles of which there were ninety-seven cases, a gripe made its appearance, and claimed as its victims 157 pupils, twelve teachers, several officers, and twelve domestic servants. "Counting all those who were ill of measles and a gripe in the institute, and on the grounds, the number totalled up to nearly 300 cases since the last of December last. This state of affairs was a very unusual one for the institute, our large family have enjoyed general good health—for weeks and weeks at a time there were sick and in the hospitals were unoccupied for two sessions. Teachers officers and employees stood at their posts until compelled to leave on account of illness, and extra help in the domestic department added to the number of sick ones to be attended to. In our emergency healthy pupils assisted very patiently in doing the work of the house, the boys did the scrubbing and the girls the darning and the cooking work. To-day out of 248 pupils only five are unable to go to school and their ailments are slight."

ANNUAL MEETING.

THE ADJOURNED Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders of THE DESERONTO DRIVING PARK ASSOCIATION, (limited), will be held in the Town Hall, Friday evening, Feb. 7th, 1890, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of hearing the reports of the Directors of the past year, and electing Directors and transacting any other general business relating to the management of the Association.
GEO. EVANS, W. C. B. RATHBUN, Secretary, President.
Deseronto, Jan. 23rd, 1890.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

To the People of Deseronto and vicinity,
Now is the time to get PHOTOGRAPHS taken at CHEAPEST RATES and in GOOD STYLE.

SAYS OF THE

Bell Piano

The attention of close and careful buyers is called to this opportunity to secure bargains in all departments.

Belleville, Sept. 16, 1889.

Mr. Henry Bull,

DEAR SIR:

I have great pleasure in adding my testimony to that of many others, and to the merits of the "Bell Piano." I may say that I have had one since the 1st of May, and am more pleased with it all the time. It has a very good touch and is brilliant and sweet in tone, and is also very good for accompaniments to the voice. Yours truly,

JULIA CAMPBELL.

The town council meets next Thursday evening.

A large gang of men are employed cutting cordwood on the Bogart farm over the Bay. Jas. Hogan, of Ixora, fell ninety feet down the Foxton mine near Sydenham and was killed.

Mr. George Field went to Napanee yesterday to put some finishing touches on the New Collegiate Institute building in that town.

Mr. M. Marrigan has been busy with a strong force of men and horses hauling timber from H. Heron's farm in Fredericksburg to Deseronto.

The Orillia Times referring to Mr. Sherlock's efforts at that town says, "The singing of Mr. Sherlock was alone worth the price of admission."

An engine and tender of the Bay of Quinte Railway went off the track on Saturday morning, on account of the snow blockade of the preceding night.

Mr. Weld, of the Farmer's Advocate, London, paid us a visit last Friday. He is making his annual pilgrimage in the interests of that popular journal.

The name of Mr. C. E. Hubbs was inadvertently omitted last week from the Committee on heating, lighting and repairs appointed by the High School Board.

Workmen are busy repairing the boilers of the Resolute, re-turning her propeller shafts and putting in new stern bearings. The engine of the Resolute is also being refitted.

During the month of January the Lumber Department of the Rathbun Company shipped 118 car-loads of material from Deseronto. During the same month in 1889 only 23 cars were shipped.

Mr. Bartlett has asked for a return of all advertisements, contracts, petitions and correspondence touching or relating to the carriage of Her Majesty's mail from Head to Shannville.

Rev. H. B. Patton, B. A., assistant at St. Mary's, has returned from Cornwall after a protracted attack of la grippe from the weakening effect of which he has not yet quite recovered.

Mr. John McAllister writes from Copper Cliff mines, Sudbury, stating that times are brisk in that district, that he has a good situation, has escaped la grippe, and that he is prospering generally.

The Northern Pacific Railway Company have decided to run their road to Vancouver and New Westminster, British Columbia. This will give needed railway competition to the people of that province.

The Reformers of East Hastings met at Canifon town hall to-day for the transaction of business and election of candidates to represent the Riding in the House of Commons and Legislative Assembly.

Mr. E. F. Freeman, while assisting to unload some oak timber in the shipyard, had his foot sorely crushed by the fall of a large piece. He was attended by Dr. Newton and is gradually recovering.

The refuse boilers in the east end are being reset. The smoke stacks have been changed in their position by Capt. Cowan. It is thought the new arrangement will save fuel and make more steam at the same time.

The vast deposit of refuse fuel stored at the treble sheds in the east end, and which it was supposed would last for the remainder of the century, is now almost consumed, the various farmers taking more this year than usual.

The Daily World, of Vancouver, B. C., states that Messrs. W. C. Archer & Co., agents for Vancouver for the Royal Insurance Fire Company Limited, London, England, and compliments the firm on their appointment.

As will be seen by advertisement in an other column, Mr. Frank Solmes, of Solmesville, who intends to proceed to the Pacific coast, offers for sale a large number of fine horses, &c., &c. A splendid chance to secure good stock.

Mr. George Clement has sold to his brother Charles the lot on the west side of Mill street opposite Mr. Chandler's residence and will build for him a house 22x28 ft. and 20 ft. post with a porch 14 ft. 6 in. wide. The new residence will be veneered with brick.

The Ottawa Citizen referring to Mr. J. M. Sherlock who sings at the C. O. F. concert, on the 20th inst., states that "he delighted the audience by his fine singing and was obliged to respond to two encores. The Sun of that city states his singing could not have been better."

A fierce snowstorm set in last Friday evening and on Saturday there was about eight inches of snow on the level. The weather has been wintry like and favourable for business. Farmers and lumbermen have been taking advantage of the good sleighing to move stuff and the roads in all directions are full of teams. Yesterday was rather mild and the roads began to get bare in several places.

There are numerous complaints about the wretched quality of butter which is generally put upon Deseronto market. It is discreditable to the farmers of the district. Residents of this town regret the action of the district officers members who secured the passage of the act prohibiting the manufacture and importation of oleo-margarine which is preferable to the so called butter sold on the market.

The Napanee Cricket Club are already organizing and making preparations for the coming season. They expect to reach a state of efficiency even greater than heretofore. Last year they played better cricket than in any previous year. The services of a professional trainer may be secured for next summer. The Deseronto contingent, whose services the past have been so much appreciated, will continue in the membership.

Hon. John Macdonald leaves an estate of about $1,000,000. To his eldest son, John Macdonald, he left $750,000 and to the second, Fraser, $250,000. To each of the three children is left $100,000. The widow is to be paid $10,000 per year. Alexander Macdonald, brother, will receive $20,000, and James Macdonald, half brother, $12,000. "Oaklands," the family homestead, valued at $550,000 is left to the sons, John and Fraser. In addition to the $400,000 already given to the children in Queen's park, that institution will receive $60,000 and Victoria University is remembered with $25,000.

Kane, the wife murderer, was hanged at the Toronto and W. W. Monday morning at 8:14. He died in thirteen minutes. He walked to the scaffold with a firm step and apparently unflinching nerve. Governor Green said him if he had any confession to make, and he said "No, no." In answer to the question if he had a statement to make Kane replied, "No." The execution was very cleverly done, the weight was detached at the time stated and Kane's body was swung into the air. He apparently suffered death with almost the least possible pain attending such a mode of execution.

St. Mark's Church.

Next Wednesday, the 19th, commonly known as Ash Wednesday, the first day of the penitential season of Lent) will be duly observed with services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. There will be a sermon and a short reading or address. Other services will be subsequently mentioned.

Proceedings.

Principal Knight, during his address at the entertainment last week, paid a warm tribute to Deseronto and its people; asserting that he did not regret his removal to this bustling town. He had received nothing but kindness since his arrival. He stated that the pupils of the school appeared to be so animated with a burning desire to succeed in their studies.

A Good Example.

The establishment of a high school in Deseronto has done more for the cause of superior education in this part of Ontario than anything which has occurred for years. It has waked up school boards in neighboring towns, the schools of which have been running down from apathy of trustees and the consequent defective character of school rooms and educational appliances.

Postal Returns.

The gross revenue of Napanee post office for the year ending June 30th, 1889, was $1,800, forwarding allowance $100; salaries, $280. Pictou, revenue $5,507, salary $1,300, forwarding $300, rent $240. Trenton $5,188, salary $1,200, forwarding $200, rent $200. Shannville, revenue $509, money orders issued $4,953, paid $561, salary $195, forwarding allowance $1,158. Northport, revenue $229, salary $130. The revenue of other offices only is given in this year's report.

R. T. of T.

Bros. N. T. Lowe and J. M. Smith, of Deseronto Council, No. 289, R. T. of T., have been elected to the Executive Council in Peterborough during the past week. There was a large attendance of delegates and the Dominion Executive was well represented. Donald Cameron, J. M. Evans and J. M. Montreal, being present. The business was satisfactorily dispatched, and it was found that the order was a healthy condition, over 2,000 members being received during the past year, and a balance of $1,350 being in the treasury. The delegates were hospitably entertained by the people of Peterborough, the W. C. T. U. especially giving them a cordial welcome.

Institution for the Blind.

The annual report of the Ontario Institution of the Education and Instruction of the Blind has been received. The average number of pupils in 1889 was 140, in 1888 it was 129. The total cost for maintenance was $34,677, as compared with $30,710 for the preceding year. The yearly cost per pupil was $247.69, for 1888 it was $278.10; the weekly cost per pupil $4.76, for 1888 it was $5.35. Of the 167 pupils present last year 99 were males and 68 females. Hastings sent 2, Lennox & Belleville 1, Frontenac 1, Peterborough 2. Since the opening of the Institution 484 pupils have been received, 275 males and 209 females; of these Hastings contributed 8, Belleville 4, Prince Edward 5, Lennox 4, and Frontenac 7.

Methodist Tea-Meeting.

The ladies of the Methodist Church, Deseronto, will hold their annual tea-meeting on Wednesday evening, 19th inst. In addition to other well known ladies, the following are expected to be present: Rev. C. O. Johnson, of Napanee, who will deliver an address on a popular subject. Excellent music will be rendered by the choir and the Citizens Band will be in attendance. Tea will be served from six to eight o'clock. Tickets are 25 cents. The ladies of the Church are famed for their cookery as well as for their zeal and should be encouraged by the inducements held out. A lecture by an exceedingly popular speaker, good music, a good entertainment, good company and a sumptuous feast. All are cordially invited.

Social Service Ball.

The Ball held under the auspices of the Social Service in the hall of Deseronto Branch C. M. B. A., on the evening of Friday, 7th inst., was a most brilliant and successful event and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large company present. The arrangements made by the committee were perfect in every detail, nothing in the shape of a hitch occurred to mar the pleasure of the evening.

Accident. The concert under the auspices of Court Court, No. 1, O. F. T., to be held in Union Hall next Thursday evening, 20th inst., will undoubtedly prove a great success. The committee have received most encouraging assurances and the sale of tickets is already brisk. In addition to the best local talent the committee have secured some splendid outside vocalists and instrumentalists for the occasion. Among others is Mr. J. M. Sherlock, of Kingston, whose singing at the Old Folks Concert several years ago was so well received as to make him a favourite. Mr. J. M. Clark, of Peterborough, the famous basso soloist, almost without a peer in Canada, will give an exhibition of his powers and surely convince the audience with his inimitable character songs. Mr. Fred Peel, of Toronto, the clarinet soloist, will also contribute several selections. A musical treat is guaranteed. Admission 25 cts. and 35 cts. Plan of hall at Malley's drug store.

Wedding Bells.

On Monday forenoon St. Anthony's Church, Deseronto, was the scene of a pleasant event which has been looked forward to with great interest by very many in Deseronto and the sale of tickets is already brisk. In addition to the best local talent the committee have secured some splendid outside vocalists and instrumentalists for the occasion. Among others is Mr. J. M. Sherlock, of Kingston, whose singing at the Old Folks Concert several years ago was so well received as to make him a favourite. Mr. J. M. The concert under the auspices of Court Court, No. 1, O. F. T., to be held in Union Hall next Thursday evening, 20th inst., will undoubtedly prove a great success. The committee have received most encouraging assurances and the sale of tickets is already brisk. In addition to the best local talent the committee have secured some splendid outside vocalists and instrumentalists for the occasion. Among others is Mr. J. M. Sherlock, of Kingston, whose singing at the Old Folks Concert several years ago was so well received as to make him a favourite. Mr. J. M. Clark, of Peterborough, the famous basso soloist, almost without a peer in Canada, will give an exhibition of his powers and surely convince the audience with his inimitable character songs. Mr. Fred Peel, of Toronto, the clarinet soloist, will also contribute several selections. A musical treat is guaranteed. Admission 25 cts. and 35 cts. Plan of hall at Malley's drug store.

KINGSFORD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Miss Sherman, of Thurlow, is visiting Mr. Mitchell McCollough's family.

Miss Lanear, of Newburg, is visiting her sister Mrs. Fred McCollough.

There was a social at Mr. Thomas Russell's residence on Tuesday evening for the benefit of Selby Parsonage.

John Griffin, of Toronto, is home on a visit.

Mr. John Frigell has been seriously ill with a relapse of the grippe and other complications. We are glad to learn that he is somewhat better. Dr. Whiteman of Melrose has been in attendance.

During the past week the farmers have been taking advantage of the good sleighing drawing wood, grain, &c.

The many friends of Mr. Samuel Anderson will regret to hear that he is very low. Mr. Anderson is an invalid and Mr. Edward Anderson and Miss Anderson have both been laid up with the grippe but are now better.

Mr. William Brennan, of Albert, was married on Monday to Miss Maggie Smith, second daughter of Mr. Samuel Anderson, Esq., of Kingsford. Both parties are well known here and general favorites and we wish them every happiness with their hosts of friends.

Mistakes often occur in the best regulated families and even in newspapers. Last week your correspondent was made to say that he was glad when it should have been that he was sorry that a certain gallant knight near Marysville was a victim of the grippe.

Mr. John McCollough of Belleville spent last week here.

Wednesday being Ash Wednesday was the commencement of the season of Lent and the marriage bells for a time cease to ring.

Mrs. Meagher, of the 6th con. of Tyendinago, who died last week, was the widow of the late James Meagher and a sister of the Rev. Father Mackey, of Marysville. She was a most estimable old lady beloved, and respected by all who knew her and her death is mourned by a large circle of relatives and friends.

We trust that an effort may be made to obtain a grant from the local government for the draining of the willow marsh. Unless some steps are taken at once a great injustice and inconvenience to the travelling public from three townships will continue. The time for mere talking is past and we wait action.

Mr. Alexander Hewitt our respected Deputy Reeve in Richmond is making preparations for building his new house next season. Mr. George Longdon is also getting ready for the erection of a new brick house. Mr. Nelson McBride is getting out timber for the erection of a new barn.

Mr. and Mrs. William Waddingham have removed to the third concession of Tyendinago between Melrose and Lonsdale.

MARYSVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Miss Annie Edwards, of Deseronto, is visiting with Miss White.

We regret to state that Mr. Joseph Farrell is seriously ill.

Mr. P. Farrell is fast recovering from a severe attack of the grippe and will soon be able to resume his peregrinations.

Mr. T. McGinnis is still buying barley, peas, and corn at the station, though grain is moving slowly.

Mr. Mark Solmes has been appointed section foreman at Trenton on the G. T. R., and will remove his family from here shortly. We wish him success.

A number of young people assembled at the home of Mr. Charles Cannon, on Monday evening and remained until the " wee small hours." All enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Your bright young townsman Mr. E. J. Edwards, his numerous friends in this section who, heartily wish himself and his amiable partner a pleasant journey through life.

Mr. Will Ferguson is with us again for a few days. We understand that he does not now intend taking charge of a cattle ranch out west but will attend a High School for a few terms instead.

SOLMESVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. A. W. Cronk arrived home from his Western tour a few days ago.

WEST BROOK.

From Our Own Correspondent.

J. R. Smith has leased his house, formerly Powley's residence, to Wm. Jackson for five years.

Daniel Smith has rebuilt his wood house. O. McMichael is employing teams hauling clay for his brick yard. He reports good indications of natural gas on his premises.

The workmen expect good wages next summer on account of the building of the double track of the G. T. R. The contractors have already commenced work at the rock cut near Colling Bay.

H. Burly writes from Cleveland that he is well pleased with the city and intends staying permanently there.

A party of young folks from this village intends going to Collingby to challenge the skater there.

Visitors: Mr. P. Gorman from North Bay; Mr. Michael McConnell, from Minneapolis; K. Asseline, Syracuse; Ed. McCarthy and sons, Wolfe Island; Joseph Forth, Genburie.

The grippe has only one case here now. Maggie Smith who is very low.

William and Robert, sons of John Cooke, presented him with a gold watch.

The Methodists have lost an honest and hard worker, Wm. Gardner, especially in the Sunday school of which he was superintendent. Slanty men have ceased work for Mr. Howie but he has five teams drawing cord wood to Mr. Kiley's saw mill.

Joseph Scott is very ill.

Pupils of our public school are progressing well.

J. Jackson is supposed to be the swiftest mechanic in this village.

TYENDINAGO RESERVE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Last autumn Mrs. John W. Hill purchased a portion of the Grant Brant ferry estate, upon which she proposes to reside. Contractor John Claus is now engaged in removing the old lady's nest cottage from near the " Pine " to a beautiful site on her new purchase. The substitution of the pretty house for the old rookery will make an improvement at the ferry.

A wedding took place at the parsonage on Tuesday morning, it being too cold to go to the church for so long a service. We tender our warmest congratulations.

We learn by today's news, in your column last week of the death of " Charlie the Weaver." His familiar figure will be missed on the Reserve, where for many years he was a constant visitor. There are few houses which do not possess some of his handiwork.

Miss Sophie Anderson, of the parsonage, left for Trenton on Saturday to accept a position of trust. She will be missed in the parish, and particularly in the choir of Christ Church.

A resident of the Reserve was seen lying in an uncomfortable position at the west end of your town last week. Had he been a Mohawk he would soon have been transferred to the cool house, but we are glad that he was in this parish minding his own business.

Your Kingsford war correspondent states that on a certain date the Reserve parson was seen by a few of his friends. It is a fact that he was in this parish minding his own business.

The Ash Wednesday services on the Reserve were well attended. At Christ Church, 11 a. m. there were over fifty persons, and at All Saints, 3 p. m., nearly forty. The parson, supported by the choir, was seen by his work by conducting further week-day services during Lent.

LONSDALE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

All kinds of changeable weather still continue, during a few hours we have had rain, hail, snow and sleet. On Wednesday night, 10th, we had several inches of snow which will improve the sleighing which has been so bad and which was well improved in hawking wood and grain.

The Epworth league, which was organized here a short time ago, is already becoming very interesting and has a good attendance. At the weekly meeting on Tuesday evenings the young people take great interest in the debates, and on Wednesday night, 10th, we had several inches of snow which will improve the sleighing which has been so bad and which was well improved in hawking wood and grain.

The women's missionary society met on the first Wednesday in each month and are taking great interest in the work.

Miss Sarah Ballance, of Watertown, N. Y., has been spending a very pleasant time in the city, at the R. C. Church, Marysville, and is now visiting friends at Selby.

MURDER AT BELLEVILLE.

The Belleville newspapers of Tuesday contained accounts of a foul murder committed in this city on Monday night. The victim was Hannah Cole, an unfortunate woman who has resided in that city for several years. It appears that she was literally pounded to death about midnight somewhere on Dundas street between Ann street and Nelson Lingham's residence. We submit some of the details as given by the Belleville press:

"My God, Jack, don't kill me for the sake of my two children." were the cries which the people living in the neighborhood of Ann street heard at midnight last night and more than one window was thrown up by frightened citizens who thought some murder was being perpetrated in the street below.

And so there was, but no one apparently raised a finger to exerted an effort to save the victim who was frantically shrieking for help and endeavoring to escape from the hands who again and again dealt sledge hammer blows on the poor victim's upturned face until she was rendered incapable of speech and fell to the ground unconscious.

The man who dragged her along the road to Nelson Lingham's barn in which they threw her and accomplished their inhuman deed was a cruel and remorseless fellow. When Mr. Lingham opened his barn shortly after midnight he found the body of the poor woman lying on the floor of the barn. He was horrified at seeing the ugly and swollen features of a woman apparently about forty years of age. At a glance he knew the woman was dead. She was breathing hard and occasionally a deep, long drawn sigh would escape from her lips. Her nose and mouth were covered with snow and blowing over her disheveled hair and bruised face. Making the woman's position as comfortable as possible Mr. Lingham at once telephoned to police headquarters for an officer. Sgt. Downs soon arrived on the scene and saw that the woman could not long remain in that position. He took the victim was conveyed in a cab to the hospital. She never regained consciousness and the doctor pronounced her beyond the reach of medical aid. Her face was terribly disfigured and discolored. Her eyes were swollen and had a glassy stare. Her nose was swollen as large as a man's fist bearing evidence of a cruel and remorseless assault. She continued to breathe slowly as if in great agony until twenty minutes to eleven o'clock when she succumbed to the great agony of nature. Unfortunately the victim did not utter a word or leave a clue by which to identify her murderers.

At 11 o'clock, however, who resides on Ann street heard the woman asking a man not to kill her, but could not recognize the parties. He was almost tempted to dress himself and make some inquiry but upon reflection thought returned to his bed. Alderman Murray Turner heard the noise and disturbance and telephoned to the police informing them of the fact, receiving the answer "All right; thank you," but that body pursued a policy of masterly inactivity for an hour or two, and then failed to discover the parties.

The victim was forty years of age and had resided in Belleville for twelve years, having come from Prince Edward county, a connection of the notorious Mary Cole, better known as "Flatfoot" now in the penitentiary.

She lived for a time in a small room in a street near the upper bridge. He, however, did not long remain with her, leaving for parties and inquiries but upon reflection thought returned to his bed. Alderman Murray Turner heard the noise and disturbance and telephoned to the police informing them of the fact, receiving the answer "All right; thank you," but that body pursued a policy of masterly inactivity for an hour or two, and then failed to discover the parties.

The Grand Trunk railway is adopting a novelty that all travellers will appreciate. This is a station indicator. In one end of the car is a box filled with cards containing the name of the station on the route. When a train starts out, a cord attached to the lever in the box is pulled, and a card drops into view showing the name of the next station. Thus every passenger who is not blind may know the station the train is approaching without asking a neighbor, and without making an effort of inspiration to interpret the enigmatical calls of the trainmen.

The University of Toronto building was destroyed by fire last Friday evening. The conflagration was caused by the upsetting of one of a number of lamps which two young men were carrying upstairs. There was practically no fire appliances to extinguish the flames. The loss to the province is great, but the trustees are moving with great energy, and all the classes resumed work on Monday morning. The Legislative Assembly will grant $100,000 for the work of rebuilding. Let us hope that the new structure will be erected on modern scientific principles.

A. O. U. W.
Mr. George Field, of Court Quide, is in Toronto at the meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. The reports show that this order is growing rapidly in membership, and its financial position is most healthy. The total membership on Jan. 1st was 19,257, an increase of 3,173 over the past year. Thirty-one new lodges were instituted last year.

The farmers have been drawing in large quantities of barley and other grain during the past week, and Mr. R. H. Baker and his staff have been very busy. Mr. Baker has been carrying up to the Point, Mill elevator, at the dock above the town, and also at Fredericksburg, where Miller Bros. are his agents. On Wednesday Mr. Baker filled a shipment of 10,000 bushels of barley from Deseronto. This represents fifteen car loads, and is the largest quantity of grain ever shipped out from this place by train. There is no advance in the price of barley, and as far higher prices this year.

South American Cities.

Montevideo, the capital of Uruguay, has been taking a census, and finds its population to be 170,000. This is located a great and rapid growth, but Montevideo, though it has a better harbor, and is not so far up stream as its more successful rival, Buenos Ayres, cannot hope to overtake or keep within sight of that Argentine capital on the opposite bank of the great fifth, or estuary, or river, known as La Plata. Buenos Ayres has to-day a population of 400,000, having doubled in about eight years.

A Man of Color.

W. J. English, a man of dark complexion and slight build, painter by trade, left Newboro about the beginning of August last to get work. Not a word has been heard from him, nor reliable information obtained as to where he went. There were rumors that he was seen at Sharbot Lake and again at North Bay, but these can be no more trustworthy source. Years ago he was addicted to drinking and was in the habit of leaving home and going to strange places without sending word, but was never away longer than three months. His wife lives in Newboro and is very anxious to hear about him.

Mr. English was at Newboro in the Sunday school. His wife is too poor to advertise and hopes newspapers will copy this and help to find him.

Stolen Property Recovered.

During Monday night, the 19th inst., 3 horses, 3 cows, a lumber wagon and a set of double harness were stolen from the premises occupied by Mr. J. B. Murphy, of lot 34, 1st concession, Tyendinaga. The above property belonged to Mr. J. J. B. Liston, of Belleville. Since the night in question a vigorous search has been instituted for the recovery of the same, but no trace of them was found until Monday 10th inst. when they were found at the house of Constable Garratt, whilst driving along the boundary line between Tyendinaga and Richmond township, discovered the horses and cows running at a gallop on the roadside. succeeded in getting the animals back to the stable where they were taken. The other articles have not been discovered. -Belleville Intelligencer.

Bill Nye, in a recent contribution to the New York World, to illustrate the crudeness of early times in the West, gives a copy of a marriage license filed in 1825 in the Court House at Peoria, Ill., which reads as follows:

"To all the World, Greeting:
"Know ye that John Smith and Penny Myers are hereby united together as married folks does, anywhere in Copera-precent, and when my commission comes I am to marry them for good and date them in to be the time.

"E. M. B., Justice of the Peace."

The fire originated by the upsetting of a lantern by a boy. The barn was full of hay and straw and contained barrels of barley, recently cleaned, were destroyed.

Mr. Geo. Goodson, the intelligent interpreter at the Sarcee reserve south of Calgary, gives us some interesting particulars about the Indians on that reserve. He states that since the natives were driven from the 13th of November last there have been only two births and three marriages against nine deaths; in fact, that the tribe are gradually dying out. The total number on the reserve at present being 330. From other sources we know that in 1883 the reserve was reckoned to contain 600 and 700 Indians. Of the older Indians about two thirds are females, while among the young ones the number of males and females are about equal.

The disparity in the former case is accounted for by many graves having lost their lives in the wars with Crees and in the chase of grizzly bears and buffalo before the advent of the railway. Among their wives widows. Marriages are not so frequent as formerly.

The young bucks say that the buffaloes and elk are scarce, being all gone, they have only the work for winter to do in tanning and dressing buffalo and other pelts; consequently they will not indulge in the expensive luxury of two or three wives. There is practically no work for them to do. - Calgary Herald.

Herbert Ward, the African explorer, in collaboration with D. D. Bidwell, begins in the New York Ledger of March 1 a series of valuable and entertaining articles descriptive of a canoe journey of 2,500 miles on the Upper Congo. A more romantic and stirring tale has never been told. Ward, who is a native of the explorer's adventurous trip, was with the thirty reckless Zambis and five Sena soldiers, in two war canoes, through the heart of equatorial Africa, ranged by bands of cannibals, and infested with gigantic and ferocious beasts and reptiles, scarcely less than the most terrible of the strange adventures in the wildest recesses of all that wild and unknown region, the explorer gives a singularly thrilling narrative in the series named. A series which promises engrossing interest to every thoughtful reader. The articles are illustrated by numerous beautiful engravings from photographs taken by Mr. Ward himself.

KILLING BUTTERFLIES.

Stopping at the sea-shore a few days since, we saw a number of interesting little children gathering butterflies, grasshoppers, and other varieties of insects, and fastening them with pins to the side of the hotel, where the poor creatures were writhing and struggling to escape. It was not the fault of the children. They did not know any better. They were very young, and knew no better. They did not know that the agony endured by these insects, and on being told of it, all assented to their being at once killed, and cheerfully indulged further in their suit of them. But it was your fault, fathers and mothers of these children, and one for which God holds you accountable. If you neglect your duties to your children in that period of life when the moulding of their character is in your hands, and they grow up more and more merciless, until in your old age you reap the harvest you have sown, you have no one to blame but yourselves. - Geo. T. Angell.

His daughter, recently enjoyed the thrilling experience of a descent of 400 feet below the surface of the ground. She first passed to the 200 foot level and then descended to the 400 foot level and saw the miners plying their shovels, and then farther down to the 600 ft. level where they were digging for copper. She considered it a very exciting and will have something to tell her juvenile friends when she returns to Deseronto.

Very for the Post. A person passing a prominent part of the police circles in Brockville for the past twenty years, has at last claimed himself to be a converted man. Some three months ago, so report says, he got in rather more water than he could hold, and while rowing around the farm house where he was working happened to topple into a turn full of cream last first.

The spectacle high presented can be better imagined as described, for it was anything but amusing. The crowd, not mind to be so placed to place himself before a looking glass to see the true state of affairs, which thoroughly disgusted, that he was soon become a new man. During the twenty years of his rowing he has paid $80 in fines and been imprisoned somewhere in the neighborhood of 40 times with sentences from 21 days in the common goal to a month in a year in the central prison.

Wading Hells. A Wednesday afternoon Mr. Thomas A. Stuart was joined in holy wedlock to Miss My Emma Brown, daughter of Mr. Thos. A. Brown. The ceremony was solemnized in Mark's church and in keeping with the season of Lent and by special request was performed by Rev. H. B. Patton, B. A. The bride looked very pretty and wore a fine colored travelling dress and carried a bouquet of natural flowers. She was attended by her sister Miss Etta Brown who was dressed in peacock blue. The groom was supported by Mr. Thomas A. Brown.

The bride was a resident of many valuable prets. After the ceremony the bride and groom were escorted to the residence of Mr. Thos. A. Brown where they were entertained by a large circle of friends who wish our young man and his fair bride all happiness and prosperity.

A Successful Physician. The world, of Fairport, N. Y., makes a special mention of Dr. A. Campbell, son of Rev. Campbell, Deseronto, who is now enjoying lucrative practice at Pennfield, near Rochester.

He went to the open winter, or some other cause, he has been more sick than we have known before. Dr. Campbell may be seen by hurrying from one place to another, but he never fails to attend to the large number of patients who desire his services.

Dr. Campbell is a young man who has been with us for years. He is a successful physician and has been successful in his treatment of disease. He is a very kind and considerate man and is a very successful physician.

His friends in Deseronto and the district who had led to learn of his success in New York state.

PRESENTATION. Mr. G. Cole, who has, on account of a multitude of other duties, been compelled to resign the chair of the choir of the Methodist church, Deseronto, desire to express regret that, in consequence of other important duties which demand your time, he found it necessary to resign the chair.

It is no sacrifice for persons actively engaged in secular matters as they have to give up some of their time to the discharge of their duties. The choir of the church is a very important part of the church and the choir is a very important part of the church.

We rejoice that you have made this sacrifice and that you have given up your time to the church. We are glad to see that you have made this sacrifice and that you have given up your time to the church.

The efforts have made to increase the efficiency of the choir have received our warm admiration. It is especially agreeable to us to learn that you do not intend severing your connection with the choir, in which you have been so long and so faithfully serving.

Withing god your all the prosperity and happiness of the church. We are glad to see that you have made this sacrifice and that you have given up your time to the church.

We truly yours, MEMBERS OF THE CHOR.

Mr. Wm. Barnum, of Newburyport, Mass., is visiting his parents in Deseronto after being absent for more than four years. He looks hale and hearty.

TEA MEETING AT MELORE. The Presbyterian congregation of Melrose held their annual tea-meeting in the "Lionel" Hall at that place on the evening of Wednesday, the 20th inst. This event always draws a very large assembly, and this year did not except an exception, despite the bad roads caused by the thaw, the hall was packed by an enthusiastic and respectable audience representing all parts of the surrounding district. After grace had been sung by all and prayer offered by Rev. James Rattray, B. A., pastor of the congregation, the whole assembly proceeded to enjoy a most excellent and well prepared as only the ladies of Melrose knew how to prepare such a splendid spread.

The viands, both in quality and quantity, were everything that could be desired. Ample justice was done to these good things by the company, the boys in the gallery and even the Deseronto delegation being compelled to eat to say "enough" this pleasant task over. Rev. Mr. Rattray introduced Mr. Hugh Walker, of Belleville, as chairman of the evening. Mr. Walker, in a few remarks, stated that he need not introduce the Melrose audience, as he had frequently enjoyed pleasant evenings with them before.

Mr. Walker, we may remark in passing, is the large sized of a chairman; he maintains full control of the meeting, never allows the performance to lag, and has an inexhaustible stock of humorous anecdotes which never fail to hit the mark at the right moment. After explaining the absence of several reverend gentlemen who were unable to be present for various reasons, he introduced Mr. Geo. Fair, of Belleville. This gentleman was in splendid voice and carried the audience by storm, his frequent efforts being invariably followed by a hearty and enthusiastically received applause. As a good naturedly responded, Mr. F. Fairman also rendered two songs in character in excellent style, and was compelled also to respond to a number of little hits. A little fair haired dot, sang very sweetly a song which elicited hearty applause, and a duet by the Misses Emmans and McFarlane was also rendered and heartily received.

Mrs. Geo. Fox contributed a duet, Rev. Jas. Rattray a reading, and Mr. A. McFarlane gave a reading and subsequently a recitation, which evidently pleased the audience. A representative of THE TRIBUNE delivered an address, and Rev. Jas. Rattray addressed the large assembly in a most appropriate and full close of which he thanked the people of all the denominations present for their kind patronage. The chairman's closing address was the most eloquent effort of the evening, inasmuch as it made the announcement that the receipts of the evening's entertainment footed up the handsome amount of $96, a fact which speaks volumes for the zeal of the ladies of Melrose. After a hearty vote of thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who contributed to the programme, and a similar vote to the popular chairman, the National Anthem was sung, after which the Rev. Mr. Rattray pronounced the benediction.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH NOTES. The Rev. A. L. Gess assisted at the evening service last Sunday, and preached a most interesting sermon on the duty of sacrifice. The congregation was large and the service was hearty.

There will be a mid-day celebration of Holy Communion next Sunday, and a collection for the ordinary collection, the offerings of communicants will be devoted to charitable purposes in the hands of the ladies of the church.

The members of the Sunday School are looking forward with much interest to the acquisition at Easter of a new set of library.

The painting of the seats in St. Mark's Hall and of the line fence to the west of the church has been completed.

The rector will probably be absent next Sunday in Pictou, taking duty there for the Rev. E. Loucks.

Every contributor are evincing a laudable determination not to be in arrears at Easter. "Be not weary in well-doing" is a good rule to follow.

The daily Lenten service at 4:30 p.m. is regularly attended by a faithful few, and is highly valued by the people. A fair congregation assembled on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

AN IMPORTANT MATTER. Mr. Editor:—It is a well known fact that the majority of people are inclined to look upon a cold in the head as a matter of little importance—involving at the most only a temporary inconvenience. No more disastrous mistake was ever made. The neglected cold in the head is the source of the catarrhal affections with which about seven tenths of the people of this country are afflicted, and catarrh itself is too often the preliminary stages to consumption and death.

The symptoms of catarrh are manifested among them may be mentioned, offensive breath; dull oppressive headache; offensive droppings from the nostrils into the throat and bronchial tubes; deafness or partial deafness; sneezing, hawking and spitting; weak and watery eyes; a hacking cough and feeling of general debility; ringing in the ears and frequent dizziness. These are but a few of the more general symptoms, and those who experience them should lose no time in applying a remedy—delays are perilous and catarrh, in the case of most of our sufferers, is too often the preliminary stages to consumption and death.

FOR DYSPESIA and Liver Complaint you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shilo's Vitalizer. It never fails a cure. Sold by W. G. Egar.

CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS—HAY FEVER A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks.

N.B.—This treatment is not a snuff or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of five cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 803 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.—Toronto Globe.

Sufferers from Catarrhal troubles should carefully read the above.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? At once send for a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it; mothers there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, loosens the gums, softens the Gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system.

"M. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething" is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

HOW SHOES ARE MEASURED.

Very few shoes wearers probably know that a size in shoes is only one-third of an inch in length. This does not seem much, and yet to many women it is a momentous affair. Two inches in a waist or bust measurement are not so apparent as the difference of an inch in the foot, for in the latter it is direct or literal increase. The mistake for increasing the size of our shoes becomes more pronounced as we ascend the scale of shoe sizes. A woman who has habitually worn a No. 3 shoe, when necessity demands, can do a 3½ without great sacrifice; she still retains the internal number 3, which in some measure compensates her for the added fraction; but a new intruder, No. 4, is a different matter. It is a formidable shoe. If shoes, like hats, could be graded by eighths of an inch, she could refer to a 3½ shoe and yet be comparatively happy. From No. 4½ to No. 5 is a still greater trial to feminine nerves, and in the realm of 6½-well, few women speak of size to any one else but the dealer. The size stick, except for custom work, is not often brought out in the retail shoe store. It is a dangerous thing in the hands of a tyro salesman, and would defeat many a sale.

With the expert salesman it can be made a powerful little ally in selling shoes to credulous folk. He can skillfully place the size stick where it will be mightier than either pen, sword, or tongue in confuting prejudice and bringing peace of mind to a customer.

ORIGIN OF THE TERM "YANKEE." There are comparatively few people who know the origin of the meaning of the term "Yankee," by which we are accustomed more or less affectionately to designate our American cousins born in the United States. In view of the approaching American Exhibition of 1893, it is not unreasonable to ask of what people they were, to which they replied "English." But the red man could not twist his tongue around that word, and the use of this word was in popular use. It was but a very short time, before "Yankee" became transformed into "Yankies." The use of this word was in popular use. The people of the Southern States call all Northerners both east and west, "Yankies," as will be remembered by those familiar with the great Civil War. The people of the Western States call only those living in the Eastern States, or east of the Hudson River, "Yankies," and these are the only people who so acknowledge the term. The people so describe themselves. On the other hand, all the English colonists and the people of Great Britain invariably call all citizens of the United States "Yankies." When abroad they cheerfully accept, and are generally proud of the title, which, as we have means and is only a corruption of the word "English."—From the New York Herald.

In the dim chamber whence but yesterday
 Passed my beloved, filled with awe I stand;
 And counting Loves fluttering on every hand
 Whisper her praises who is far away.
 A thousand delicate glances dance and play
 On every object which her robes have fanned,
 And tenderest thoughts and hopes bloom and expand
 In the sweet memory of her beauty's ray.
 Ah! could that glass but hold the faintest trace
 Of all the loveliness once mirrored there,
 The clustering glory of the shadowy hair
 That framed so well the dear young angel face!
 That so, it shows my own face, full of care,
 And my heart is her beauty's dwelling place.

—John Hay, In Seibauer

When you go forth to hunt the lion you have a bold and open enemy. In ninety-five cases out of a hundred he will charge you if you meddle with him. In the other five he may get rattled and run away. The lion seldom prowls or sneaks. The tiger will often resort to measures unworthy of the wolf. One can always locate the lion at night, if he be full grown, by his voice. Fearing nothing on earth, human or animal, he delights in locating himself. Hunters have now and then been stalked by a lion, but in every case it was curiosity more than hunger which prompted the beast. When the tiger stalks it is for blood. He is never curious.

We had been beating the jungles in the Bangalore district, to the west of Calcutta, for some time, and had been successful in driving away our party was too large for a successful hunting party, being composed of over twenty men, and a large number of servants, but at last for a vacation, and the servants must have numbered fifty. We had plenty to eat, drink and smoke, and now and then knocked off to get into the jungles, but not far enough to get within five miles of anything worthy of a bullet with such a camp as that. One day, however, we were accompanied by one of our return with him to a village called Bahur, about twenty-five miles to the north-west. He said that an old tiger had taken up his abode in the jungles near Bahur, and during the four weeks he had been there, the tiger had killed and devoured a man, two women, and a child, and had also taken a number of traps, but he would not enter them. They had poisoned the carcasses of goats and calves, but he would not touch them. It had been a long time since he had been disturbed, and he entered his house and made himself secure for the night, while the tiger held possession of the village, and carried out his very sort.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

the tiger appeared at the usual spot we and him at short range. We watched and waited for the tiger to appear, but he did not appear. If he saw the figure at all he sensed the trick. Then we fastened a goat on a pole and hoisted it up to a height of a hundred feet away. From a window looking out to the north we had a fine show to draw the tiger if he appeared. But he did not appear. We waited for an hour, but he did not appear, rides on the cock; but, though the tiger kept up a continual bleating for hours, we drew no other audiences than a few jackals and a few vultures. Next morning the tiger made his usual visit to the man and said:

"As the woman was very fat she would last longer for an extra meal or two. He would not have been able to swallow, but to-morrow he will come into the village in search of a victim. You must plan accordingly."

In the afternoon we went to the family house, and the tiger, through up the staircase, laid it in the sleeping corner. Only then did we take possession of the next cabin, only then did we go to the door and say to the man to command the door of the first. The people went to their work as usual and returned at the usual time, and everybody was as usual. The tiger was not in the village, but he was waiting for the man to come back. He waited for what was that the tiger would prowled about the village, trying each opening to get an entrance, and we had left this door open. At about 9 o'clock, and were taking things up at about 8 when we heard an uproar at the other end of the village. We two ran to the door, and the tiger was there, he was thrust, burst in a door by flinging his weight against it, and had seized and carried off a man about 8 years old. The villagers were in a great hurry, and the tiger was in a great hurry, and the man said to us, while the tiger was running down his cheeks:

ing, subsists, but we may as well abandon the idea of going to the village. The tiger is a cunning tiger, and you can do nothing with it. If we do not go away, he will eat us.

I quieted the people, but we could not rest any day more, in particular the night of my scare. Every window opened, and every door provided with a barred, and every door provided with a barred. It was characteristic of the simple people, that they were not so much afraid of a tiger, as of a tiger's roar. The tiger roared, more than half the hour, and I was already sure that the tiger could have reached us. We had to wait again for the tiger to get hungry. As the crops were not yet in, we had no food to eat. So, we ordered that the villagers keep a pot and show themselves as little as possible, and two nights and days were thus worn out. On the third day we had a great and dragged. The tiger was in the creek to the door of the last where we had placed the dummy, and at twilight the village was as quiet as a graveyard.

At 10 o'clock, the tiger was heard about half a part, and at 10 o'clock, the tiger got alarm. He came over to me to say that he was dying for a smoke, and to ask if I had a pot? I said, I could not give a cigar, when he said that the tiger was aloud. The cunning tiger had not come by the trail we had prepared, but had made a circuit and struck the village. We were not in the village, but we afterward ascertained, he had been swimming round for an hour, before they got to see it in succession. Our openings were not so much as the cunning tiger seemed to be posted as to the tiger's position to the north side. We plainly heard him push our door and rear up and claw the bars of the window, and we hardly believed for fear of the tiger. The tiger was a cunning tiger, and under the door through the door he could shove his head, and the tiger got down and sniffed and snuffed

Then he got up and remained standing. He must have had the scent of the blood only two or three rods away, but it was not until he was within a few feet of the openings, each covered with a board and ready to fire, when the beast suddenly made up his mind to act. With one bound he sprang from shelter and covered the distance to the first opening, and would be bent bang against the door, pushed in, and was hidden from our sight before we could get the pull trigger. He took him when he was within a whisper of the major, and both of us watched and waited. He must not doubt, expected to find a victim in the hut. He seized the dummy, gave a shake, and the discovery he made broke him all up. Instead of coming out and just standing there, he came back, and with a jerk of the opening, head down, and legs kicking, when we fired and killed him. He proved to be an old tiger, having been shot by a hunter named Big and Long, and would doubtless have made many victims but for our interference.—New York Herald.

Death of Gerald.
This is the story of a poor, little, outcast boy who was picked up one bitter winter day. Harry, my little cripple brother, was brought home with a frozen blood, and his strength him, and his mother and father, and his brothers and fed him. The dog was so kind that he cared for no one but his master, and he was so happy when he heard his catch on the stair.

Now for the end of this story. After the dog had been in the house for a long time, he died of spinal disease. The body was left in the house, awaiting burial, three days, and the dog was so kind that he was not, but he never left the spot he was in, under this tree, while the time remains.

When the funeral fell the house he whined and would not be comforted, but after a day or two recovered from his grief, and a little later, he was so kind that he was, was also lame as walked on the grass.

The dog heard the bell, and thought was his little master come back again, and he tried to admit him, and when he could not, he turned away, and he could not survive the disappointment, and he died of grief.

SOME SUPERSTITIONS ABOUT DEAD MEN'S SHOES.

Where a Funeral Is Called a Dead Shoe.
Pretty Little Stories in Which Shoes Are Prominent Characters—How the Queen Moved the Emperor.

The superstition of the burial of the boots of the dead in England is at least as old as seventeen years since the writer heard from an old clergy that when another clergy was buried, he was buried with his boots. The reason was not given; perhaps it was not known. These customs often survive after the cause has been forgotten, and it is not good that good or bad luck attends their observance or the neglect of it.

Many years ago, in an article on "The English Magazine" stated that according to an Aryan tradition, the greatest part of the way from the land of the living to the land of the dead is a path that is covered with moors overgrown with ferns and thorns, and that the dead might not pass over them barefoot, a pair of shoes was laid with them; in fact, the shoes were buried with the dead.

The shoe was of old in many countries a symbol of life, liberty, or entire personal control. In Rome, the shoe was the symbol of power, and the emperor, when he was crowned, placed a golden shoe upon his head, and the emperor transferred himself by the symbol to the shoe.

When the Emperor Vladimir made proposals of marriage to the daughter of Ragnald, the king of the Danes, he sent him a pair of shoes to the son of a slave. Gregory Tours, in speaking of weddings, says: "The bridegroom, having given a ring to the bride,

A CURIOUS CUSTOM.

As regards the Scandinavian hel-sheo, or hel-sho, Kelley, in his "Indo-European Mythology," has given the following account: "A dead soul goes in the Hemeberg district; the writer already cited adds that in a S. of the Cotton library, containing an account of the Hel-sheo, written by the late Sir Walter Scott, there is a passage which illustrates this curious custom. It was quoted by Sir Walter Scott in the notes to "Minstrelsy of the Scottish Border," and runs thus: "The dead body, resting the journey at the party deceased must go; and they are of belief that once in their lives it is made to give a pair of hands, and to perform a dance, before this life they are to pass barefoot through a great lane, full of thorns and furzen—except by the mercy of the alms abroad; they have redeemed themselves from the pains of the hel-sheo; the man shall meet them with the same eyes that were given by the party when he was living, and after he hath shodden them

"I must be a very agreeable reflection to gentlemen who have bestowed their old boots on waiters, or ladies who have in the person specified their maids. To be sure, the fashion gives new shoes; but surely a pair of thirty shilling boots only half worn count as much as a new pair of half a sovereign counters. However, if one is to go through thick and thin without scratch or harm, it is better to be to the point of the inside, and give a good new extra stout shoe to the gardener for Christmas. For surely the superstitions are strange things, and no one knows what may be in them! There are one or two quaint shoe stories of olden times which may be of value to the

He befell one in the beginnings of Bohemia at land, found herself compelled by her husband to wed. And the wise men, being consulted, declared that he who was to marry her must first be a peasant, and last of all a poor one, who would lead the way till he found a peasant man from an iron table, and kneel to him. So the horse went on, and unto a field where a man sat eating a peasant's dinner from a plowshare. This was the farmer who had been the first of the last of the royal robes and led him to the green expanse of the field. But ere going he took his shoes of willow-wood and placed them in his bosom, and kept them to remind him ever after of his

It will, of course, at once strike the reader, that it has been learned, that this is a story that could naturally originate in any country where there are iron plowshares, horses, peasants and wooden shoes; and, as Schafarik readily suggests, that it was all "a put up job," since, of course, Prschemich was already a lover of the queen, the horse was trained to find him and to kneel before him, and, finally, that the plowshare and wooden shoes were the prepared properties for the little drama. The Seven-League boots and the shoes of Peter Schlemihl, which take over the world at will, have a variation man, who refused a young man with every conceivable aggravation of the offense, informing him that when she ran after him, she was not running after him, but after the man; and at the same time meeting a poor old woman who begged her for a pair of old shoes. To which the proud princess replied: "I give you a pair of shoes, but I will not give you a couple. I'll give thee a pair, but I will not give thee a couple."

At which the old woman, who was a witch, and a very cunning one, said: "I will have which?" The rest of the expression was useless to us, I am sorry to report. Well, the witch and the witch met, and going to the witch's house, she gave her a very shabby elegant pair of shoes, which were sent to the damsel as a gift. Such a gift! No wonder she was so fond of them. She was carrying the prince, and then they started off and came. By and by she saw that a young man, of course, whom she had recognized, was running after her in the footsteps of the "Cork Leg," "this shoe" she stepped, but led her to the place. And the young man kept her to a lonely castle and she married him. The prince, who was a very merry man, thought she ever run after him, and so she had pursued him a whole day, she was so fond of the shoes. She sent to the witch filled with gold, and she gave her a pair of shoes, and all went as merry as a thousand.

this extract from the scientific papers of Great Britain and Europe:

The four greatest medical centres of the world are London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. These cities have immense hospitals teeming with suffering humanity. Hundreds of students thereof are constantly under the Professors' charge. The most renowned physicians of the world teach and practice here, and the institutions are stores of medical knowledge and experience. With a view of making this experience available to the public the Hospital Remedy Co. at great expense secured the prescriptions of these hospitals, prepared the medicine, and estimated would cost from $250 to $1200 to secure the attention of their distinguished physicians, yet in this way their prepared specifics are offered at the price of the cheap patent medicines that flood the market and cheaply relieve the poor of a single bottle.

We have received a copy of "A Tract for the Times on the Situation," written by an experienced business man, who has merely sense enough to withhold his name from the public. He endeavours to prove that the United States with its seventy millions of people is of no account in the world, and then concludes that the remedy for all evils in this country is the establishment of a capital and seat of government in the "Tract" to the waste basket.

Two-Roaded Barley.
The Picton Times states that some farmers have informed it that two-rowed barley had been tried several years ago in Prince Edward by a farmer and had proved a failure, and further, that sown on land cultivated and manured as in England, it would produce a good crop, but sown on land worked as the greater part of the land in this country is worked, the yield would be less than that of single-rowed.

The Leontides.
As an example of the extent of the exodus to the United States from all parts of the Dominion, we may state that we had a request this week from sixteen persons residing at Washburn, Wisconsin, for sample copies of THE TRIBUNE. These persons had all previously resided in this section of the 34th district. Occasionally we read of a politician or city journal denying that there is any exodus, but the editor of a country weekly is never so silly, as he is well aware that a very large proportion of his subscribers are residents of the United States who wish to keep posted on what is going on in their old homes in Canada.

The Belleville Murder.
The inquest into the Belleville murder case has resulted in the following verdict by the coroner's jury: "That the said Hannah Cole, whose body was found in a dying condition in the barn of Mr. Nelson Lingham, in the city of Belleville, on the 18th day of February, 1890, that the said Hannah Cole, was removed therefrom to the hospital in Belleville, and died there, and that the said Hannah Cole came to her death by exposure and violence, said violence being inflicted by one William Arnold. Arrested, the alleged murderer is still at large, the police having completely failed to discover any traces of him."

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

The hall of Deseronto Branch, No. 86, C. M. B. A., was the scene of a pleasant episode on the evening of Thursday, 26th inst. All the regular business having been transacted Mr. Thos. Hart, President of the Branch, proceeded to read an address while Bro. M. J. McFaul presented a handsome and valuable clock to Mr. E. J. Edwards, Chancellor of the Branch. The address congratulated the Chancellor on his marriage, this event being taken by the Branch as the occasion of this kind and deserved expression of regard for their brother. Bro. Edwards made a brief and suitable reply and subsequently entertained the brethren at the Oriental.

THE ADDRESS.

To Mr. E. J. Edwards, our Worthy Chancellor.

Dear friend and brother:—We the members of Branch, No. 86, of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, take this opportunity of extending you our hearty congratulations on the event of your marriage, and to present you with this clock as a slight mark of the appreciation in which you are held by this Branch.

That each and every hour it strikes will be spent in happiness by yourself and estimable young wife, is the sincere wish of each and every member. Signed on behalf of the branch.

LENT 1890.

The following pastoral letter has been published by the clergymen of St. Mark's Church:

Our Parishioners:

The Holy Season of Lent has again come round and once more the Church calls us to communal fast, as much as possible, to Religious discipline, to self denial and generally to spiritual improvement, so that we may continually "grow in Grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

Now the ends to be sought in the devout observance of this Penitential Period of Forty Days are simply these:

1. To grow more Christ-like in mind and heart and life; to know Him better, to love Him more sincerely, and to obey Him more implicitly.

2. To conquer the sins of selfishness, indifference and worldliness, which, in one shape or another, are constantly warring against the higher spiritual life.

Some of the means which may be profitably employed towards the attainment of these blessed ends will be found stated in the "Lenten Suggestions," appended to this address, which we venture earnestly and affectionately to propose for your consideration and use.

The arrangement of services is intended to afford daily opportunity for drawing nigh to God in the appointed services of the Church. We hope you will attend regularly as you can and especially that so many as are Communicants will gladly remember the Holy Feast of the Altar for the strengthening and refreshment of the soul.

All the days of Lent should have a character different from other days, and God's day especially should remind you of your saviour's tender Love, and of the Calvary, and when these solemn days have passed away and glorious Easter dawns once more, then express to us your gratitude to a loving Heavenly Father your deep sense of His mercy and goodness through Jesus Christ our Lord: We remain, dear friends, yours faithfully in His Church.

Moved by Councillor Geddis seconded by Councillor Richardson that the time for the Collector to complete the collection and return the Roll be extended to June 1st. Carried.

Moved by Councillor Richardson seconded by Councillor Irvine that the Street Committee be authorized to purchase not more than 500 yards gravel for the streets. Carried.

Moved by Councillor Richardson seconded by Councillor Irvine that the Treasurer be authorized to issue all orders on the Treasurer for money voted by the Council and also orders for the payment of small expenses incurred by any of the standing committee of this Council between regular meetings on a written order signed by a majority of the respective committees and all payments so made must be reported to the Council at its next meeting. Carried.

The Council adjourned until the third Thursday in March at 7:30 p. m.

The news comes from Mattawa that a blacksmith, named Barabas Gilroy, of Sugar Island, near the Michigan Sault, is dead, and a French doctor who attended him says the man literally died from spontaneous combustion. Gilroy was working over the forge when he inhaled the heat, and a fire started within his body, the victim suffering the most excruciating agony until relieved by death. Great drops of burning flesh dropped from the man's body while he was yet alive.
